

The Jersey Shore Association for Human Resources November Webinar

COVID-19 Employment Law Update

Presented by Jackson Lewis

As the 4th quarter unfolds, organizations and HR professionals are faced with a wide range of issues impacting the workplace. "Return to work" has become so much more than three simple words. At the same time, employers continue to grapple with the fallout from the pandemic and the immediate threat of COVID-19 litigation. This presentation will address a number of pandemic, political, and civil unrest issues that have evolved over the past eight months.

By attending this session, participants will be gain clarity and learn best practices to address:

- The current state of New Jersey Executive Orders related to COVID-19 and the reopening of workplaces
- Wage and Hour issues impacting the remote work environment
- The First Amendment and the New Jersey workplace -- Legally and practically managing political and religious expression at work
- The legal and practical implications of recent federal executive order regarding training of employees
- Attendees' questions on hot issues impacting current and future workplace matters
